Cycling tips

- Be visible
This means bright clothing in the daytime and bright lights as well at night. A light coloured cycle helmet is visible a long way off.
- Ride positively and decisively
Use your personality - you are in charge of a vehicle and have every right to be there. You need a 2-ton ego to make up for your lack of size. Take pride when you ride.
- Make bold, clear signals
Always make big, exaggerated, hand signals; in good time and after checking your rear.
- Anticipate problems and situations before they arise
Try to read the road ahead and use your height to get a better view.
- Shout a warning where necessary
Or use a bell or horn. If the driver or pedestrian sees you anyway you've lost nothing.
- Make eye contact with drivers when moving slowly
A driver will generally avoid eye contact if he does not intend to give way to you.
- Expect aggression and ignorant behaviour
This is no longer unusual nor unexpected and should not upset you.
- Ride away from the kerb where you can be seen
When moving the same speed as other vehicles, but pull over again to allow cars to overtake when you cannot keep up.
- Whenever possible, keep to quiet roads and cyclepaths
There's no point in trying to compete with heavy traffic on roads that are not designed for cycles.
- Maintain high cycling standards
This means stay legal, be considerate towards others (especially those most vulnerable) and load no more than your bike can safely carry.

About Spokes

Spokes is an active campaign group set up to encourage cycling and publicise its benefits. We are based in the East Kent area of the UK but have an interest in better conditions for cyclists everywhere.

We publish a free quarterly newsletter in which we air our views and the views of others on cycling issues and ensure its widest possible distribution. You can read the latest edition and back issues online via www.spokeseastkent.org.uk.

We also organise a full programme of rides and cycling events in and around Kent to be enjoyed by ordinary people.
